

BUS RIDER RULES AND REGULATIONS

School bus passengers shall comply with any lawful order given by the driver in carrying out his responsibility to transport passengers safely. Transportation for all students in the school district is provided, although students living close to the school are encouraged to walk to and from school. Bus routes are developed in accordance with school district. Students must ride on assigned buses. They are picked up and delivered to a designated spot. Each student is allowed two households for transportation. For example, home and daycare would be considered two households. Changes must have administrative approval.

Students, who do not follow bus riding rules and become disciplinary problems, may have their riding privileges suspended. All school rules apply to buses.
