Documents are required to prove residency in the district. Wisconsin State Statute 121.77 requires that students attend school in their district of residence and that a school district charge tuition for non-resident students. To enroll your student, bring one of the following residency documents to the appropriate school office.

1. If you own or are buying a home, a copy of your real estate tax bill; if you recently purchased a home in the Ellsworth Community School District, a copy of the closing statement.
2. If you rent, a copy of your lease agreement.
3. A copy of a gas or electric utility bill.

If you have any question about this required information, our processes or the intent of this letter, please contact us as the number listed below or the school district office at 715-273-3900.
